I am submitting my application for the unique family quotient with my tax identification number.

I have my tax identification number,
and my current situation matches that of my last tax notice.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

To submit your application,
you must use:

1 A smartphone, a tablet or a PC with Internet

2 A valid email address

3

Your last tax return updated in line with your situation (or your parents' tax return if you are included in their tax household).

You can find your tax number here

You should use an up-to-date telephone set to French.

If your telephone is not up-to-date or is not in French, the message "declarant not found" may be displayed at step 5, which means that the tax number is not recognised.
